POPULAR SPORT OF TRADITION BRINGS HONORS TO LOCAL FAYETTE YOUTH

Incredible as it may seem, there is yet another local sport featuring a "winners circle" of talent to be recognized in the Fayette County area. Packed in a gym with 750 plus viewers and other students recently presented no fear to the local LaGrange United Tae Kwon Do participants as loads of first (17) and second (13) place trophies were achieved against the likes of over 150 tough competitors from areas including Corpus Christi, Houston, San Antonio, and Austin.

Pictured are some, but not all of the students winning 1st or 2nd place in patterns or sparring techniques: Jace Locke, Meagen Bednar, Caleb Knapik, Tracy Knapik, Katelyn Allen, Keyla Marroquin, Brayden Horton, Katharina Chaloupka, Tracy Huffman, Ben Huffman, Ronny Thomson, Mykiaela Robert, Clayton Knapik, Cordale Knapik, Brenna Iannelli, Campbell Youens, Riley Youens, William Bednar, Teagen Branch, Joshua Arnold, Lisa Ledbetter, and Benjamin Arnold.

United Tae Kwon Do is the world's most effective form of self-defense and great physical fitness for men, women, and children with the ultimate goal of improvement. Tracing back 1,350 years ago to the Silla Dynasty, it is aimed at cultivating the noble character of each student and promote good and healthy sportsmanship. The United Tae Kwon Do in La Grange is under the guidance of Master Debra Filla.
